ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Agency Name: Administration for Community Living

Description: This project will improve the health and quality of life of individuals living with paralysis of all ages, their families, and their support systems. The project will support individuals living with paralysis and work to strengthen their confidence and independence, create stronger support networks, increase support and resources available, and/or generally increase their opportunities to be valued participants in all aspects of community living. All activities funded under this grant will promote greater independence, equality, choice, and control for individuals living with paralysis and to help them more fully integrate into their communities.
